The earliest information the publisher is yet able to collect, of the origin of the New England Primer, is contained in the following extract, from an Almanac now in the Library of the Massachusetts Historical Society, Boston.

INTRODUCTION TO THE PRESENT EDITION.

THE pious Baxter, who knew well the greater part of the Westminster Assembly of Divines, says, that the Christian world, since the days of the Apostles, never had a Synod of more excellent divines. The Assembly was convened in 1643; and was composed of one hundred and twenty-one divines, or presbyters; thirty lay assessors, and five commissioners from Scotland. It sat more than five years and a half.

Our Puritan Fathers brought the Shorter Catechism with them, across the ocean, and laid it on the same shelf with the family Bible. They taught it diligently to their children, every Sabbath. And while a few of their descendants, now in the evening of life, remember every question and answer; many, not yet advanced to life's meridian, can never forget when every Saturday forenoon, they had to take a regular catechising, in the common school, commencing with the a, b, c, oaken-bench class, "What is the chief end of man?"

If in this Catechism, the true and fundamental doctrines of the Gospel are expressed in fewer and better words, and definitions, than in any other summary, why ought we not now to train up a child in the way he should go?—why not now, put him in possession of the richest treasure that ever human wisdom and industry accumulated, to draw from?

A Society of ladies was formed in Boston, in the time of Mr. Whitefield, for improvement in personal piety, and to pray for the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom. The Society met weekly for prayer, "reading some sound and serious book," singing, and other exercises adapted to "spiritual edification." "We also agree," say they, "once a quarter, to spend the day in prayer and other duties of religion, our special errand at the throne of grace to ask for the outpouring of the Spirit of God on us, our families, and the world of mankind."—"Once a quarter, the exercises shall be so shortened, as to have room to ask ourselves the Assembly's Shorter Catechism, that so we may keep in our minds that excellent form of sound words." This edition of the New England Primer, is a reprint and fac-simile of one of those owned and used by that Society.

A community of Boston ladies of "the olden time," enrolling the bright names and embodying the choice influences of the mothers of this Israel—the Masons and the Waterses of hallowed memory—sembled quarterly to refresh their minds from this Primer. The fact needs no comment.*

N. B. This statement is from a lady who was a member of the above Society, and from the documents of the Society in her possession.

* "Most valuable of every thing, is the education and principles drawn from the mother's knee."—UPSHUR.

CERTIFICATES.

At the request of the publisher, the following certificate has been furnished by a gentleman who has given much attention to the subject of early School Books and Catechisms, in this country.

“The edition of the New England Primer, published in 1843 by Mr. Ira Webster, of Hartford, is a correct reprint of the oldest copy of that remarkable work, of which I have any knowledge; perhaps the oldest copy now extant. All other reprints which I have seen, have been considerably altered—modernized—from the original.

Cambridge, Oct. 20, 1849.

GEORGE LIVERMORE.”

Communicated by the Rev. Thomas Williams :

“The edition of the New England Primer, which has been published by Mr. Ira Webster, of Hartford, in the year 1843, is the only genuine and correct edition of that valuable and wonderful book that has been to be obtained for many years. It is probably more than fifty years since there has been printed a complete and correct edition of the Primer, except the one printed by Mr. Webster. His edition is an exact copy of the Primer that was used by families and schools in my youth, sixty years ago, and I suppose it had been used for fifty or a hundred years before that time. The genuine copy of the Primer, on account of its antiquity, and its extensive usefulness in former years, has now become an object of interesting and beneficial curiosity.”

THOMAS WILLIAMS.

The publisher of this edition, from one of 1777—(wishing to obtain information of still older copies,) would say that he has in his possession three Primers, two printed in Boston, 1770, 1777, and one in Providence, 1775, all the same, after the title page.

The Honorable JOHN HANCOCK, Esq;

A Divine Song of Praise to G O D , for a Child,
by the Rev. Dr. W A T T S .

HOW glorious is our heavenly King,
Who reigns above the Sky!
How shall a Child presume to sing
His dreadful Majesty!*

*How great his Power is none can tell,
Nor think how large his Grace:
Nor men below, nor Saints that dwell
On high before his Face.*

*Nor Angels that stand round the Lord,
Can search his secret will;
But they perform his heav'nly Word,
And sing his Praises still.*

*Then let me join this holy Train,
And my first Off'rings bring;
The eternal G O D will not disdain
To hear an Infant sing.*

*My Heart resolves, my Tongue obeys,
And Angels shall rejoice,
To hear their mighty Maker's Praise,
Sound from a feeble Voice.*

The young INFANT'S or CHILD'S morning Prayer. From Dr. WATTS.

ALMIGHTY God the Maker of every Thing in Heaven and Earth; the Darkness goes away, and the Day light comes at thy Command. Thou art good and doest good continually.

I thank thee that thou hast taken such Care of me this Night, and that I am alive and well this Morning.

Save me, O God, from Evil, all this Day long, and let me love and serve thee forever, for the Sake of Jesus Christ thy Son. AMEN.

The INFANT'S or young CHILD'S Evening Prayer. From Dr. WATTS.

O LORD God who knowest all Things, thou seest me by Night as well as by Day.

I pray thee for Christ's Sake, forgive me whatsoever I have done amiss this Day, and keep me all this Night, while I am asleep.

I desire to lie down under thy Care, and to abide forever under thy Blessing, for thou art a God of all Power and everlasting Mercy. AMEN.

An Alphabet of Lessons for Youth.

A Wise son maketh a glad father, but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

Better is a little with the fear of the Lord,
than great treasure & trouble therewith.

Come unto Christ all ye that labor and are heavy laden and he will give you rest.

Do not the abominable thing which I hate saith the Lord.

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

GODLINESS is profitable unto all things,
having the promise of the life that now is, and that which is to come.

HOLINESS becomes G O D ' s house for ever.

IT is good for me to draw near unto G O D .

KEEP thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life.

LIARS shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone.

MANY are the afflictions of the righteous, but the L O R D delivereth them out of them all.

NOW is the accepted time, now is the day of salvation.

OUT of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

PRAY to thy Father which is in secret ; and thy Father which sees in secret shall reward thee openly.

QUIT you like men, be strong, stand fast in the faith.

REMEMBER thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

SEEST thou a man wise in his own conceit, there is more hope of a fool than of him.

TRUST in God at all times, ye people, pour out your hearts before him.

UPON the wicked, God shall rain an horrible tempest.

WO to the wicked, it shall be ill with him, for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

EXHORT one another daily while it is called to day, lest any of you be hardened thro' the deceitfulness of sin.

YOUNG men ye have overcome the wicked one.

ZEal hath consumed me, because thy enemies have forgotten the word of God.

The LORD's Prayer.

OUR Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. AMEN.

The C R E E D.

IBELIEVE in God the Father Almighty Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, which was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he arose again from the dead, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father, Almighty. From thence he shall come to judge both the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. A M E N .

Dr. W A T T S ' s Cradle Hymn.

H U S H my dear, lie still and slumber,
holy angels guard thy bed,
Heavenly blessings without number,
gently falling on thy head.
Sleep my babe, thy food and raiment house and home thy friends provide,
All without thy care or payment,
all thy wants are well supply'd.
How much better thou'rt attended,
than the Son of God could be,
When from heaven he descended,
and became a child like thee.
Soft and easy is thy cradle,
coarse and hard thy Saviour lay,
When his birth-place was a stable,
and his softest bed was hay.
Blessed Babe ! what glorious features,
spotless fair, divinely bright !!
Must he dwell with brutal creatures,

how could angels bear the sight !
Was there nothing but a manger,
 curfed finners could afford,
To receive the heavenly stranger ;
 did they thus affront their Lord.
Soft my child I did not chide thee,
 tho' my fong may found too hard ;
'Tis thy mother fits beside thee,
 and her arms fhall be thy guard.
Yet to read the shameful ftory,
 how the Jews abus'd their King,
How they ferv'd the Lord of glory,
 makes me angry while I fing.
See the kinder fhepherds round him,
 telling wonders from the fky ;
There they fought him, there they found ~~him~~
 with his Virgin Mother by.
See the lovely Babe a drefling ;
 lovely Infant how he smil'd !
When he wept, the Mother's bleffing sooth'd and hufh'd the holy child.
Lo ! he flumbers in his manger,
 where the horned oxen fed ;
Peace my darling here's no danger,
 here's no Ox a near thy bed.
'Twas to fave thee, child from dying
 fave my dear from burning flame,

Bitter groans and endless crying,
that thy blest Redeemer came.
May'st thou live to know and fear him,
trust and love him all thy days !
Then go dwell for ever near him,
see his face and sing his praise.
I could give thee thousand kisses,
hoping what I most desire :
Not a mother's fondest wishes,
can to greater joys aspire.

V E R S E S for Children.

THOUGH I am young a little one,
If I can speak and go alone,
Then I must learn to know the Lord,
And learn to read his holy word.
'Tis time to seek to God and pray
For what I want for every day :
I have a precious soul to save,
And I a mortal body have,
Tho' I am young yet I may die,
And hasten to eternity :
There is a dreadful fiery hell,
Where wicked ones must always dwell :
There is a heaven full of joy,
Where godly ones must always stay :
To one of these my soul must fly,
As in a moment when I die :

When God that made me, calls me home,
I must not stay I must be gone.
He gave me life, and gives me breath,
And he can save my soul from death,
By J E S U S C H R I S T my only Lord,
According to his holy word.
He clothes my back and makes me warm :
He saves my flesh and bones from harm.
He gives me bread and milk and meat
And all I have that's good to eat.
When I am sick, he if he please,
Can make me well and give me ease :
He gives me sleep and quiet rest,
Whereby my body is refresh'd
The Lord is good and kind to me,
And very thankful I must be :
I must obey and love and fear him,
By faith in Christ I must draw near him.
I must not sin as others do,
Lest I lie down in sorrow too :
For God is angry every day,
With wicked ones who go astray,
All sinful words I must restrain :
I must not take God's name in vain.
I must not work, I must not play,
Upon God's holy sabbath day.
And if my parents speak the word,

I must obey them in the Lord.
Nor steal, nor lie, nor spend my days,
In idle tales and foolish plays,
I must obey my Lord's commands,
Do something with my little hands :
Remember my creator now,
In youth while time will it allow.
Young S A M U E L that little child,
He serv'd the Lord, liv'd undefil'd ;
Him in his service God employ'd,
While E L I 's wicked children dy'd :
When wicked children mocking said,
To a good man, Go up bald head,
God was displeas'd with them and sent
Two bears which them in pieces rent,
I must not like these children vile,
Displease my God, myself defile.
Like young A B I J A H , I must see,
That good things may be found in me,
Young King J O S I A H , that blessed youth,
He fought the Lord and lov'd the truth ;
He like a King did act his part,
And follow'd God with all his heart.
The little children they did sing,
Hofannahs to their heavenly King.
That blessed child young T I M O T H Y ,
Did learn God's word most heedfully.

It seem'd to be his recreation,
Which made him wise unto salvation :
By faith in Christ which he had gain'd
With prayers and tears that faith unfeign'd.
These good examples were for me ;
Like these good children I must be.
Give me true faith in Christ my Lord,
Obedience to his holy word,
No word is in the world like thine,
There's none so pure, sweet and divine.
From thence let me thy will behold,
And love thy word above fine gold.
Make my heart in thy statutes sound,
And make my faith and love abound.
Lord circumscribe my heart to love thee :
And nothing in this world above thee :
Let me behold thy pleas'd face,
And make my soul to grow in grace,
And in the knowledge of my Lord
And Saviour Christ, and of his word.

Then let my heart so fixed be,

That I may lengthen out thy praise,
And never turn aside from thee.

So in my end I shall rejoice,
In thy salvation joyful be ;
My soul shall say with loud glad voice,
JEHOVAH who is like to thee ?

Who takest the lambs into thy arms,
And gently leadeſt thoſe with young,
Who ſaveſt children from all harms,

Advice to Youth. Eccle. xii.

NOW in the heat of youthful blood,
Remember your Creator God;
Behold the months come hast'ning on,
When you shall say, My joys are gone.

Behold the aged sinner goes
Laden with guilt and heavy woes,
Down to the regions of the dead,
With endless curses on his head.

The dust returns to dust again,
The soul in agonies of pain,
Ascends to God not there to dwell,
But hears her doom and sinks to hell.
Eternal King I fear thy name,
Teach me to know how frail I am,
And when my soul must hence remove,
Give me a mansion in thy love.

Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

CHILDREN your great Creator fear,
To him your homage pay,
While vain employments fire your blood,
And lead your thoughts astray.

The due remembrance of his name
Your first regard requires :

Till your breast glows with sacred love,
 Indulge no meaner fires.
 Secure his favour, and be wise,
 Before these cheerless days,
 When age comes on, when mirth's no more
 And health and strength decays.

MR. JOHN ROGERS, minister of the gospel in London, was the first martyr in Queen MARY'S reign, and was burnt at Smithfield, February 14, 1554.—His wife with nine small children, and one at her breast following him to the stake; with which sorrowful sight he was not in the least daunted, but with wonderful patience died courageously for the gospel of JESUS CHRIST.

Some few days before his death, he wrote the following Advice to his Children.

GIVE ear my children to my words
Whom God hath dearly bought,
Lay up his laws within your heart,
and print them in your thoughts.

I leave you here a little book for you to look upon,

'That you may see your father's face
when he is dead and gone :

Who for the hope of heavenly things
While he did here remain,

Gave over all his golden years
to prison and to pain.

Where I, among my iron bands,
inclosed in the dark,

Not many days before my death,
I did compose this work :

And for example to your youth,
to whom I wish all good,

I send you here God's perfect truth,
and seal it with my blood.

To you my heirs of earthly things :
which I do leave behind,

That you may read and understand and keep it in your mind.

That as you have been heirs of that

that once shall wear away,
You also may possess that part,
which never shall decay.
Keep always God before your eyes,
with all your whole intent,
Commit no sin in any wise,
keep his commandment.
Abhor that arrant whore of R O M E,
and all her blasphemies,
And drink not of her cursed cup,
obey not her decrees.
Give honor to your mother dear,
remember well her pain,
And recompence her in her age,
with the like love again.
Be always ready for her help,
and let her not decay,
Remember well your father all,
who would have been your stay.
Give of your portion to the poor,
as riches do arise,
And from the needy naked soul,
turn not away your eyes :
For he that doth not hear the cry
of those that stand in need,
Shall cry himself and not be heard,
when he does hope to speed.

If GOD hath given you increase,
and blessed well your store,
Remember you are put in trust,
and should relieve the poor.
Beware of foul and filthy lust,
let such things have no place,
Keep clean your vessels in the LORD,
that he may you embrace.
Ye are the temples of the LORD,
for you are dearly bought,
And they that do defile the same,
shall surely come to nought.
Be never proud by any means,
build not your house too high,
But always have before your eyes,
that you are born to die.
Defraud not him that hired is,
your labour to sustain,
But pay him still without delay,
his wages for his pain.
And as you would that other men
against you should proceed,
Do you the same to them again,
when they do stand in need.
Impart your portion to the poor,
in money and in meat

And fend the feeble fainting foul,
of that which you do eat.
Ask counfel always of the wife,
give ear unto the end,
And ne'er refuse the fweet rebuke
of him that is thy friend.
Be always thankful to the LORD,
with prayer and with praife,
Begging of him to blefs your work,
and to direct your ways.
Seek firft, I fay, the living GOD,
and always him adore,
And then be fure that he will blefs,
your basket and your ftore.
And I befeech Almighty GOD,
replenifh you with grace,
That I may meet you in the heavens,
and fee you face to face.
And though the fire my body burns,
contrary to my kind,
That I cannot enjoy your love
according to my mind :
Yet I do hope that when the heavens
fhall vanifh like a fcroll,
I fhall fee you in perfect fhape,
in body and in foul.
And that I may enjoy your love,

and you enjoy the land,
I do beseech the living LORD,
to hold you in his hand.
Though here my body be adjudg'd
in flaming fire to fry,
My soul I trust, will straight ascend
to live with GOD on high.
What though this carcase smart awhile
what though this life decay,
My soul I hope will be with GOD,
and live with him for aye.
I know I am a sinner born,
from the original,
And that I do deserve to die
by my fore-father's fall :
But by our SAVIOUR'S precious blood,
which on the cross was spilt,
Who freely offer'd up his life,
to save our souls from guilt ;
I hope redemption I shall have,
and all who in him trust,
When I shall see him face to face,
and live among the just.
Why then should I fear death's grim look
since CHRIST for me did die,
For King and Cæsar, rich and poor,
the force of death must try

When I am chained to the stake,
and fagots girt me round,
Then pray the LORD my soul in heaven
may be with glory crown'd.
Come welcome death the end of fears,
I am prepar'd to die :
Those earthly flames will fend my soul
up to the Lord on high.
Farewell my children to the world,
where you must yet remain ;
The LORD of hosts be your defence,
'till we do meet again.
Farewell my true and loving wife,
my children and my friends,
I hope in heaven to see you all,
when all things have their end.
If you go on to serve the LORD,
as you have now begun,
You shall walk safely all your days,
until your life be done.
GOD grant you so to end your days,
as he shall think it best,
That I may meet you in the heavens,
where I do hope to rest.

OUR days begin with trouble here,
our life is but a span,

And cruel death is always near,
so frail a thing is man.

Then sow the seeds of grace whilst young,
that when thou com'st to die,
Thou may'st sing forth that triumph song,
Death where's thy victory.

A. The whole word of God is of use to direct us in prayer but the special rule of direction is that form of prayer which Christ taught his disciples commonly called, The Lord's Prayer.

Q. 100. What doth the preface of the Lord's prayer teach us?

A. The preface of the Lord's prayer which is Our Father which art in heaven, teacheth us, to draw near to God with all holy reverence and confidence, as children to a father, able and ready to help us, and that we should pray with and for others.

Q.101. What do we pray for in the first petition?

A. In the first petition, which is, Hallowed be thy name, we pray that God would enable us and others to glorify him in all that whereby he makes himself known, and that he would dispose all things to his own glory.

Q. 102. What do we pray for in the second petition?

A. In the second petition, which is, Thy kingdom come, we pray that Satan's kingdom may be destroyed, the kingdom of grace may be advanced, ourselves and others bro't into it, and kept in it, and that the kingdom of glory may be hastened.

Q. 103. What do we pray for in the third petition?

A. In the third petition, which is, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven, we pray that God by his grace would make us able and willing to know, obey and submit to his will in all things, as the angels do in heaven.

Q. 104. What do we pray for in the fourth petition?

A. In the fourth petition, which is, Give us this day our daily bread, we pray, that of God's free gift we may receive a competent portion of the good things of this life, and enjoy his blessing with them.

Q. 105. What do we pray for in the fifth petition ?

A. In the fifth petition, which is, And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, we pray that God for Christ's sake, would freely pardon all our sins, which we are the rather encouraged to ask, because by his grace we are enabled from the heart to forgive others.

Q. 106. What do we pray for in the sixth petition ?

A. In the sixth petition, which is, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, we pray that God would either keep us from being tempted to sin, or support and deliver us when we are tempted.

Q. 107. What doth the conclusion of the Lord's prayer teach us ?

A. The conclusion of the Lord's prayer, which is, For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever, AMEN, teacheth us, to take our encouragement in prayer from God only, and in our prayers to praise him, ascribing kingdom, power and glory to him, and in testimony of our desire and assurance to be heard, we say, A M E N.

Blessed are they that do his commandments that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Rev. xxii. 14.

Q. What is done for you in the Lord's supper?

A. In the Lord's supper, the receiving of the bread broken and the wine poured out is a sign and seal of my receiving the communion of the body of Christ broken for me, and of his blood shed for me, and thereby of my growth in Christ, and the pardon and healing of my sins, of the fellowship of the Spirit, of my strengthening and quickening in grace, and of my sitting together with Christ on his throne of glory at the last judgment.

Q. What was the resurrection from the dead, which was sealed up to you in baptism?

A. When Christ shall come in his last judgment, all that are in their graves shall rise again, both the just and unjust.

Q. What is the judgment, which is sealed up to you in the Lord's supper?

A. At the last day we shall all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, to give an account of our works, and receive our reward according to them.

Q. What is the reward that shall then be given?

A. The righteous shall go into life eternal, and the wicked shall be cast into everlasting fire with the Devil and his angels.

A DIALOGUE between CHRIST, YOUTH, and the Devil. YOUTH.

THose days which God to me doth send,
In pleasure I'm resolv'd to spend;
Like as the birds in th' lovely spring,
Sit chirping on the bough, and sing;
Who straining forth those warbling notes,
Do make sweet music in their throats,
So I resolve in this my prime,
In sports and plays to spend my time.
Sorrow and grief I'll put away,
Such things agree not with my day:

From clouds my morning shall be free ,
And nought on earth shall trouble me.
I will embrace each sweet delight,
This earth affords me day and night :
Though parents grieve and me correct,
Yet I their counsel will reject.

Devil.

The resolution which you take,
Sweet youth it doth me merry make.
If thou my counsel wilt embrace,
And shun the ways of truth and grace,
And learn to lie, and curse and swear.
And be as proud as any are ;
And with thy brothers wilt fall out,
And sisters with vile language flout .
Yea, fight and scratch, and also bite,
Then in thee I will take delight.
If thou wilt but be rul'd by me,
An artist thou shalt quickly be,
In all my ways which lovely are,
Ther'e few with thee who shall compare.
Thy parents always disobey ;
Don't mind at all what they do say :
And also pout and fullen be,
And thou shalt be a child for me.
When others read, be thou at play,
Think not on God, don't sigh nor pray

Nor be thou such a silly fool,
To mind thy book or go to school ;
But play the truant ; fear not I
Will straitway help you to a lie,
Which will excuse thee from the same,
From being whipp'd and from all blame ;
Come bow to me, uphold my crown,
And I'll thee raise to high renown.

Y O U T H .

These motions I will cleave unto,
And let all other counsels go ;
My heart against my parents now,
Shall harden'd be, and will not bow :
I won't submit at all to them,
But all good counsels will condemn,
And what I list that do will I,
And stubborn be continually.

CHRIST.

Wilt thou, O youth make such a choice,
And thus obey the devil's voice !
Curst sinful ways wilt thou embrace,
And hate the ways of truth and grace ?
Wilt thou to me a rebel prove ?
And from thy parents quite remove Thy heart also ? Then shalt thou see,
What will e'er long become of thee.
Come, think on God, who did thee make.

And at his presence dread and quake,
Remember him now in thy youth,
And let thy soul take hold of truth :
The Devil and his ways defy,
Believe him not, he doth but lie :
His ways seem sweet, but youth beware,
He for thy soul hath laid a snare.
His sweet will into bitter turn,
If in those ways thou still wilt run,
He will thee into pieces tear,
Like lions which most hungry are.
Grant me thy heart, thy folly leave,
And from this lion I'll thee save ;
And thou shalt have sweet joy from me,
Which shall last to eternity.

Y O U T H .

My heart shall cheer me in my youth,
I'll have my frolicks in good truth,
What e'er seems lovely in mine eye.
Myself I cannot it deny.
In my own ways I still will walk,
And take delight among young folk,
Who spend their days in joy and mirth,
Nothing like that I'm sure on earth :
Thy ways, O Christ ! are not for me,
They with my age do not agree.
If I unto thy laws should cleave,

No more good days then should I have.

CHRIST.

Woul't thou live long and good days see

Refrain from all iniquity :

True good alone doth from me flow,

It can't be had in things below.

Are not my ways, O youth ! for thee,

Then thou shalt never happy be ;

Nor ever shall thy soul obtain,

True good, whilst thou dost here remain

Y O U T H .

To thee, O Christ, I'll not adhere,

What thou speak'st of does not appear

Lovely to me I cannot find,

'Tis good to set or place my mind

On ways whence many sorrows spring

And to the flesh such crosses bring,

Don't trouble me, I must fulfil,

My fleshly mind, and have my wil.

CHRIST.

Unto thyself then I'll thee leave,

That Satan may thee wholly have :

Thy heart in sin shall harden'd be,

And blinded in iniquity.

And then in wrath I'll cut thee down

Like as the grafs and flowers mown •

And to thy woe thou shalt espy,

Childhood and youth are vanity ;
For all such things I'll make thee know
To judgment thou shalt come also.
In hell at last thy soul shall burn,
When thou thy sinful race hast run.
Consider this, think on thy end
Lest God do thee in pieces rend.

Y O U T H .

Amazed, Lord ! I now begin,
O help me and I'll leave my sin :
I tremble, and do greatly fear,
To think upon what I do hear.
Lord ! I religious now will be,
And I'll from Satan turn to thee.

Devil.

Nay, foolish youth, don't change thy mind,
Unto such thoughts be not inclin'd.
Come, cheer up thy heart, rouse up, be glad.
There is no hell ; why art thou sad ?
Eat, drink, be merry with thy friend,
For when thou diest, that's thy last end.

Y O U T H .

Such thoughts as these I can't receive,
Because God's word I do believe ;
None shall in this destroy my faith,
Nor do I mind what Satan saith.

Devil.

Although to thee herein I yield,
Yet e'er long I shall win the field.
That there's a heaven I can't deny,
Yea, and a hell of misery :
That heaven is a lovely place
I can't deny ; 'tis a clear case ;
And easy 'tis for to come there,
Therefore take thou no further care,
All human laws do thou observe,
And from old customs never swerve ;
Do not oppose what great men say,
And thou shalt never go astray.
Thou may'st be drunk, and swear and curse,
And sinners like thee ne'er the worse ;
At any time thou may'st repent ;
'Twill serve when all thy days are spent.

CHRIST.

Take heed or else thou art undone ;
These thoughts are from the wicked One,
Narrow's the way that leads to life,
Who walk therein do meet with strife.
Few shall be saved, young man know,
Most do unto destruction go.
If righteous ones scarce saved be,
What will at last become of thee !
Oh ! don't reject my precious call,
Lest suddenly in hell thou fall ;

Unless you soon converted be,
God's kingdom thou shalt never see.

Y O U T H .

Lord, I am now at a great stand :
If I should yield to thy command,
My comrades will me much deride,
And never more will me abide.
Moreover, this I also know,
Thou can'st at last great mercy show.
When I am old, and pleasure gone,
Then what thou say'st I'll think upon.

CHRIST.

Nay, hold vain youth, thy time is short,
I have thy breath, I'll end thy sport ;
Thou shalt not live till thou art old,
Since thou in sin art grown so bold.
I in thy youth grim death will send,
And all thy sports shall have an end.

Y O U T H .

I am too young, alas to die,
Let death some old grey head espy.
O spare me, and I will amend,
And with thy grace my soul befriend,
Or else I am undone alas,
For I am in a woful case.

CHRIST.

When I did call, you would not hear,

But didst to me turn a deaf ear ;
And now in thy calamity,
I will not mind nor hear thy cry ;
Thy day is past, begone from me,
Thou who didst love iniquity,
Above thy foul and Saviour dear ;
Who on the cross great pains did bear,
My mercy thou didst much abuse,
And all good counsel didst refuse,
Justice will therefore vengeance take,
And thee a sad example make.

Y O U T H .

O spare me, Lord, forbear thy hand,
Don't cut me off who trembling stand,
Begging for mercy at thy door,
O let me have but one year more.

CHRIST.

If thou some longer time should have,
Thou wouldst again to folly cleave :
Therefore to thee I will not give,
One day on earth longer to live.

Death.

Youth, I am come to fetch thy breath,
And carry thee to th' shades of death,
No pity on thee can I show,
Thou hast thy God offended so.
Thy soul and body I'll divide,

Thy body in the grave I'll hide,
And thy dear soul in hell must lie
With Devils to eternity.

The conclusion.

Thus end the days of woful youth,
Who won't obey nor mind the truth ;
Nor hearken to what preachers say,
But do their parents disobey.
They in their youth go down to hell,
Under eternal wrath to dwell.
Many don't live out half their days,
For cleaving unto sinful ways.

The late Reverend and Venerable Mr. NATHANIEL CLAP, of Newport on Rhode Island ; his Advice to children.

GOOD children should remember daily, God their Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier ; to believe in, love and serve him ; their parents to obey them in the LORD ; their bible and catechism ; their baptism ; the LORD's day ; the LORD's death and resurrection ; their own death and resurrection ; and the day of judgment, when all that are not fit for heaven must be sent to hell. And they should pray to GOD in the name of CHRIST, for saving grace
